Principles of 1776 and 1787.

C. CHAUNCEY BURB, EDITOR. This is the only magazine naw published in the United States, devoted to the principles of Democracy, as taught by the Pathers of the Federal Constitution. It discusses the great doctrines of state Rights and of Constitutional Preedom with a spirit that is defiant of the despotiam which reims at Washington.

The object of the werk is to supply, at a cost wishin the reach of every patriotic citizen, the means of confuting the Disunion Abolition Traitors, by an appeal to the official historical records of our country. of our country.

The undersigned baying taken charge of the publishing business of the magazine, would assure its patrons that no effort will be sparsed to ensure as prompt publication, and to add to its interest, its the patronage extended to it shall warrant.
